CHRIST AND CULTURE CLASS

How do we as Christians engage the culture around us? Discussing difficult issues in a thoughtful, winsome and loving way can seem daunting. Join us as we grow our Christian worldview and learn how to engage the issues of today with grace and truth. In this 4-week class beginning Wednesday, April 12 at, we will discuss topics such as love, the LGBTQAI + community, and gender and sexuality while growing in a Biblical worldview of Christ and culture.

NEW SERIES

The reality of the Gospel should have dramatic implications for practical, Christian living. The book of Ephesians explores the cause-and-effect relationship between this message and our day-to-day lives. As we study through these passages, we will be invited to see that if certain things are true, then there will be a specific outcome in and through us. If the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus has changed everything, then we are all invited into a new way of life found in Him! Join us next Sunday for this powerful new series, If This, Then That.
